

Dear FCC,I think that this is pretty simple and should cause no confusion what so ever. Being an xm subscriber, I pay for and benefit from satellite radio's service. I feel that xm's instant traffic and weather channels should not be removed from xm's programming. I pay for the service and therefore, I choose to listen to it, and this should not be an issue with NAB.